

Siccar Point Energy appoints Chris Finlayson as a Non-Executive Director.

Aberdeen, 13th May 2015

Siccar Point Energy Limited (Siccar Point Energy) today announced the appointment of Chris Finlayson, former CEO of BG Group, as a non-executive director on the board of Siccar Point Energy. Chris brings nearly four decades of experience in technical and commercial experience in the oil and gas industry. Prior to his appointment as CEO at BG Group, Chris was responsible for BG Advance, including the exploration team, the Group's major capital projects programme, contracts and procurement and technology. Before joining BG Group, Chris was an Executive Vice President with Royal Dutch Shell where he was a member of the global Exploration and Production leadership team. He has managed major businesses in Russia, Nigeria, Brunei, Turkey and the North Sea.

In addition to his role on the Board at Siccar Point Energy, Chris is the non-executive chair of InterOil Corporation, a non-executive director and chair of the RemCo at Lloyd's Register Group and a non-executive director of Hoegh LNG. Chris is also a senior advisor to Blackstone, one of Siccar Point Energy's investors.

Siccar Point Energy is a new exploration, development and production company, based in Aberdeen and focused on the North Sea. The Company's vision is to build a material North Sea portfolio through acquisition, development and exploration. The Company is led by CEO Jonathan Roger and is backed by Blackstone, Blue Water Energy and GIC (Singapore Sovereign Wealth Fund).

END.

